

Purchase your tickets today — before they're sold out!

Look Inside
Lakewood

The 2024 Lakewood House Tour

1286 Thoreau Ave.
This unique Craftsman stone cottage sits on a park-like lot.

12601 Lake Ave.
The stately Tudor exterior hides a fascinating steampunk interior.

Patron Party Location
(Not on the Sunday tour.)
Nestled behind a verdant wall including native plantings is our mid-century Patron Party house.

Saturday Patron Party
9/7/24
$100pp Includes
Sunday Tour ticket,
plus see an add'l home

Sunday House Tour
9/8/24
$30pp
Tour eight homes, plus the Nicholson House

13926 Clifton Blvd.
This Craftsman bungalow with lush gardens is decorated with furniture and accents from the Period.

13984 Clifton Blvd.
This Dutch Colonial is a masterful conversion of a double to a single family home.

1046 Nicholson Ave.
This thoroughly updated Colonial Revival is surrounded by lush gardens.

13216 Detroit Ave.
Started in 1875, Church of the Ascension is the oldest continuous congregation in Lakewood. The current structure was completed in 1918.

13216 Detroit Ave.
Hidden behind Church of the Ascension is its Georgian rectory.

1462 Belle Ave.
This classic Arts and Crafts home with its welcoming porch was saved and rehabilitated after a house fire.

Scan for more info &
to buy tickets online

Proceeds from the 2024 Lakewood House Tour benefit programs of The Lakewood Historical Society and the operation of the Oldest Stone House Museum and the Nicholson House